NYS Parks – Long Island Region Permit for the Placement and Maintenance of Geocaches

Any visitor wishing to place a cache must complete an application for placement and maintenance of the geocache site. The permit application is reviewed by the facility manager or designee. If approved, this application becomes the permit, and the cache owner will be issued a label to be placed on the cache container. The facility manager will keep a copy of the original permit on file and give a copy to the owner. If the permit is denied, justification will be recorded on the permit. The facility manager has discretion to deny the permit.
